Marvel as these thoroughbreds dance on "toes" as they are led from the paddock to the track. Watch as the trainers saddle and prepare for the race. Listen as the bugler sounds the call to post. Before you know it, the caller is heard from every corner of the park "racing" and the horses are off dashing for the finish line. The horses thunder down the stretch towards the finish line – CSA Members can't help but standup screaming encouragement. You are all now a part of the amazing fun that is thoroughbred racing! Join us!
